Constitution

The Board of Directors of Market Harborough Building Society has resolved to establish a Committee of the Board to be known as the Board Remuneration Committee ("RemCo").

The Committee has the delegated authority of the Board in respect of the functions and powers set out in these terms of reference.

The Committee may sub-delegate any or all of its powers and authority as it thinks fit to one or more of its members or the Financial Controller & Society Secretary, including without limitation, the establishment of sub-committees which are to report back to the Committee.

Role and responsibilities

To lead the process for determining the policy for executive director remuneration and setting remuneration for the chair, executive directors and senior management. To review the remuneration of the non-executive directors staff. To review related policies and the alignment of incentives and rewards with culture, taking these into account when setting the policy for executive director remuneration.

Objective

To determine the appropriate remuneration of the Chair and Executive Directors and other Executives and to make recommendations to the Board concerning the remuneration of NEDs and other staff.

Duties and terms of reference

The Committee shall carry out the following duties for the Society as appropriate:

- a) to review at least annually the Society's Remuneration Policy Statement and approve appropriate amendments;
- b) to make remuneration decisions and recommendations having considered all implications for risk and risk management;
- c) to take into account any matters raised by those with overall responsibility for the Compliance and Risk Functions and/or Internal Auditors concerning the implications of the Policy for risk and risk management. In carrying out this review the Committee will have regard to the requirements of the PRA and FCA Handbooks;
- d) to make recommendations to the Board concerning the remuneration of non-executive directors;
- e) to determine the terms and conditions of service of the Chair;
- f) to determine the terms and conditions of service* of the Chief Executive after consultation with the Board Chair;

- g) to determine the terms and conditions of service* of any other Executive Directors after consultation with the Board Chair and the Chief Executive;
- h) to determine the terms and conditions of service* of any other member of the Executive team after consultation with the Chief Executive;
- i) to consider proposals from the Executive and, where appropriate, make recommendations to the Board concerning the terms and conditions of service for all other managers and staff ;*
- j) to review calculations and approve payments for employees arising under general staff incentive schemes or Executive incentive schemes;
- k) to review the terms of incentive schemes agreed by the Executive for individual groups of employees;
- l) to consider any other topics as defined by the Board from time-to-time;
- m) to report annually on its work including the following (in line with the Corporate Governance Code):
 - an explanation of the strategic rationale for executive directors' remuneration
 - reasons why the remuneration is appropriate using internal and external measures, including pay ratios and pay gaps;
 - a description, with examples, of how the remuneration committee has addressed the factors of clarity, simplicity, risk, predictability, proportionality and alignment to culture;
 - whether the remuneration policy operated as intended in terms of company performance and quantum, and, if not, what changes are necessary;
 - what engagement has taken place with shareholders and the impact this has had on remuneration policy and outcomes;
 - what engagement with the workforce has taken place to explain how executive remuneration aligns with wider company pay policy; and
 - to what extent discretion has been applied to remuneration outcomes and the reasons why.
- n) to periodically, and at least annually, carry out a Committee Self-Evaluation exercise.
- o) To ensure that we consider our responsibilities in relation to Consumer Duty, specifically focussing on the Products and Services and Fair Value outcomes.

* Terms and conditions of service involves consideration of (but is not confined to): rates of pay, pensions, profit-related pay schemes, any incentive schemes, permanent health insurance schemes, private medical schemes and any other tangible or non-tangible benefit.

In taking remuneration decisions, the Committee will have regard to the input of staff (where appropriate) and to the potential risks to the Society and its members associated with those decisions. The Committee consider the clarity and simplicity of all remuneration arrangements.

Membership

The Committee shall be appointed by the Board from amongst the Non-Executive Directors, and shall comprise of no less than two Non-Executive Directors, of whom at least one shall also be a member of the Audit and Compliance Committee of the Risk Committee.

The Board shall appoint the Chair of the Committee but this will not be the Chair of the Board. The Chair of the Committee will have served as least 12 months on a Remuneration Committee prior to appointment as Chair of the Committee. In the absence of the Committee Chair and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present at a meeting shall elect one of their number present to chair the meeting.

The Committee Chair shall review membership of the Committee annually as part of the annual performance evaluation of the Committee and ensure Committee members have appropriate knowledge, skills and experience. The Chair should also consider whether RemCo members have sufficient time to deliver their responsibilities.

The Chief Executive will normally attend meetings and act as Secretary to the Committee and provide all necessary support to the Committee, including the recording of Committee minutes and ensuring that the Committee receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable full and proper consideration of the relevant issues.

Quorum

The quorum necessary for the transaction of business at a Committee meeting shall be two Non-Executive Directors, present in person or by audio or video conference.

A duly convened Committee meeting at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Committee.

Frequency of, and attendance at, meetings

The Committee shall meet at least twice per year with such additional ad hoc meetings as Committee members may deem fit.

Only Committee members have the right to attend and vote at Committee meetings. However, the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Customer Officer, Chief Risk Officer, Chief Lending Officer, Chief Engagement Officer and Financial Controller & Society Secretary may be invited to attend and address meetings of the Committee and other non-members may be invited to attend all or part of any meetings as and when appropriate and necessary.

The Secretary of the Committee shall ascertain, at the beginning of each meeting, the existence of any conflicts of interest and minute them accordingly.

Meetings of the Committee may be conducted when the members are physically present together or in the form of either video or audio conferences.

Notice of meetings

Meetings of the Committee shall be called by the Secretary of the Committee at the request of any of its members.

Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date, together with an agenda of items to be discussed and relevant papers, shall be forwarded to each member of the Committee, any other person required to attend and all other Non-Executive Directors, no later than three working days before the date of the meeting.

Voting arrangements

Each Committee member shall have one vote which may be cast on matters considered at the meeting. Votes can only be cast by members attending a Committee meeting (whether in person or by audio or video conference).

If a matter that is considered by the Committee is one where a Committee member, directly or indirectly has a personal interest, that member shall not be permitted to vote at the meeting.

Except where he or she has a personal interest, the Committee Chair shall have a casting vote.

The Committee Chair may ask attendees of a Committee meeting to leave the meeting to allow discussions of matters relating to them.

Minutes of meetings

The Society Secretary (or their nominee) shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all Committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance. A resolution in writing signed by all Committee members will be as effective as a resolution passed at a Committee meeting. Any written resolution shall be tabled and noted at the next meeting of the Committee.

The minutes of meetings of the Committee will be circulated to all members of the Board, and the Chair will report formally to the Board on its deliberations, decisions and recommendations at the Board meeting following each Committee meeting.

Annual General Meeting ("AGM")

The Committee Chair shall attend the AGM to answer any questions from members on the Committee's activities and areas of responsibility.

Reporting responsibilities

The Committee shall:

- Report to the Board on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters within its duties and responsibilities.
- Make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- Make available to members these terms of reference by placing them on the Society's website.

General matters

The Committee shall:

- Consider other duties determined by the Board from time to time.
- Have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the Society Secretary as required.
- Be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on ongoing basis for all members.
- Give due consideration to all applicable laws and regulations.
- Work and liaise as necessary with all other Board Committees.
- At least annually, carry out a Committee Self-Evaluation exercise and review its terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Board for approval.

Authority

The Board authorises the Committee to:

- Carry out all duties set out in these terms of reference, to have unrestricted access to the Society's documents and information and to obtain, at the Society's expense, appropriate external legal or other independent professional advice on any matter within its terms of reference as it considers necessary.
- Seek any information if requires from any employee of the Society to perform its duties.
- Secure the attendance of external advisers or third parties with relevant experience and expertise at its meetings if it considers this necessary, at the Society's expense.
- Call any employee to be questioned at a Committee meeting as and when required. All employees are directed to co-operate with any request made by the Committee.
